

Are you ready for a career in MANUFACTURING?

Industrial Workplace Fundamentals

The Continuing Education, Adult Education, and Trades & Industry divisions of Oconee Fall Line Technical College are partnering to provide a two-week intensive program that prepares individuals to enter the workforce for a career in manufacturing.

Class Details:

- Call for Scheduling

For More Information:

Zach Woodard, Adult Education
Coordinator
Adult Education
478-274-7848 | zwoodard@oftc.edu

Credentials Earned:

- OSHA 10-Hour General Industry
- Forklift Safety Certification
- Medic First Aid (CPR/First Aid/AED)
- National Career Readiness Certification
- Northstar Basic Computer Skills Certificates in Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint

Additional topics

- Manufacturing Skills
- Employability Skills
- Soft skills