SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

Jack R. English Commercial Truck Driving Scholarship

Parameters:
- The Jack English CTD Scholarship was established by Dr. Tiffany Daniel in memory of her late father, Jack R. English. Mr. English was a driving force in establishing the truck driving program at OFTC and served as director of the program until 2001.
- Scholarships will be awarded within the three weeks of each spring semester.
- Scholarships will be awarded on a financial needs basis and will be used to defray the expense of tuition and books.
- Four (4) $100.00 scholarships will be awarded annually.
- Funds will be dispensed directly to Oconee Fall Line Technical College on behalf of the student.

Eligibility Requirements:
- Applicants must be enrolled as a student in the Commercial Truck Driving program at OFTC.
- Applicants must demonstrate a financial need as stated in their essay.
- Applicants must attach a 100 word personal explanation of their current need and their plans for the future.
- Applicants must complete the OFTC Foundation North, Inc. application
- Deadline for application after the first two weeks of completed classes each spring semester

Awarding of the Scholarship:

- The Jack R. English Scholarship Review Committee will consist of three employees from Oconee Fall Line Technical College.
- Application materials will be sent to each committee member for review by the Institutional Advancement Office.
• The committee will meet and scholarship recipients will be chosen by the committee at this time.
• The Financial Aid Director, OFTC Bookstore, and BANNER A/R personnel will be notified in writing by the Institutional Advancement Office about the applicants of the scholarship as well as the names of the recipients.
• The scholarships will be announced each semester by the third (3rd) week of classes. Awards will be made by Dr. Tiffany Daniel.